

Cutting Room Floor Gold: The Interviews

For more information, please contact: info@southhillfilms.com

An – Doctor and South Vietnam Cabinet Minister during Vietnam War

Jose Anderson – attorney, author and Historian

Dwayne Andreas - CEO and chairman of Archer Daniels Midland.

Inez Andreas - philanthropist and wife of Dwayne Andreas.

Michael Beschloss - Presidential historian

Christopher Breiseth – President of The FDR Institute at Hyde Park

David Brooks – Journalist, Professor and author

Lawrence Brown – State Department, founder of Ronald McDonald House.

Jimmy Carter - President of the United States

Clarke Chambers – Social Welfare Historian

Tomlin Coggeshall – grandson of Frances Perkins

Adam Cohen – Journalist, New York Times

William Colby – CIA Director

William Coleman -- one of the Brown V Board attorneys

William Connell - Humphrey's legislative assistant.

John Cowles - newspaper publisher and philanthropist.

Kimberle Crenshaw -- Professor of Law at Columbia and UCLA

Harry Davis – first African American endorsed candidate for Mayor of Minneapolis

Jennifer Delton - professor and Humphrey historian.

Robert Dole - Senator and candidate for president.

Ofield Dukes - attorney and member of Humphrey's staff

Al Eisele - Journalist and Humphrey biographer.

Walter Fauntroy - minister and assistant to Martin Luther King

Charles Ferris - assistant to Senator Mike Mansfield.

Don Fraser - Congressman and Mayor of Minneapolis

Jane Freeman - active in politics and wife of Governor Orville Freeman.

Charles Garrettson - Humphrey biographer.

Larry Gibson -- attorney and Marshall biographer

Todd Gitlin - activist and educator.

Jack Greenberg -- One of the Brown V Board attorneys

Linda Greene -- Professor of History at University of Wisconsin

Alice Kessler-Harris – President American Association of Historians

Julian Hartt – Humphrey childhood friend, Dean of Yale Divinity School

Tom Hayden - activist and Congressman.

John Earl Haynes - retired historian at the Library of Congress.

William Howard - Humphrey's nephew

Robert Hughes - U.S. State Department.

Frances Humphrey Howard - sister of Hubert Humphrey

Douglas Humphrey - son of Hubert Humphrey

Hubert H. "Skip" Humphrey III, - son of Hubert Humphrey

Robert Humphrey - son of Hubert Humphrey

Jack Hyatt – student at Phyllis Wheatley

Rawn James -- Attorney and Marshall biographer

Nellie Stone Johnston - labor leader and civil rights activist

Geri Joseph - U.S. ambassador to the Netherlands.

Elena Kagan – Supreme Court Justice and clerk for Justice Marshall

Max Kampelman - statesman and U.S. ambassador

Amy Klobuchar – Senator

William Kubicek - Chair of the MN Democratic-Farmer Labor party.

Katherine Long - wife of Russell Long and daughter-in-law of Huey Long

Miles Lord - U.S. federal judge

Lui - Doctor and South Vietnam Cabinet Minister during Vietnam War

Robert Mann - author and educator at LSU.

George Martin, Frances Perkins biographer

Eugene McCarthy - Senator and presidential candidate

Herb McCloskey – professor and Political scientist

Marion Majors-McElroy – student at the Phyllis Wheatley House

Dorothy Hall-McFarland – nursery school teacher at Phyllis Wheatley House

George McGovern –Congressman, Senator, and candidate for President.

Harry McPherson - White House counsel to Lyndon Johnson

George Mitchell - Senator from Maine

Walter Mondale – Senator, Vice President, and candidate for President

Bill Moyers – journalist and author.

Roger Mudd – journalist and TV newscaster

Arthur Naftalin - Professor and Mayor of Minneapolis

Lawrence O'Donnell – Journalist, MSNBC

David Roe - President of the Minnesota AFL-CIO.

Nancy Pelosi – Speaker of The U.S. House of Representatives.

Nelson Polsby - Congressional historian.

John Reilly - Humphrey foreign relations assistant.

Norman Sherman -Vice President Humphrey's press secretary

William Shore - member of the Humphrey mayoral staff.

John Stewart - Humphrey's chief legislative assistant.

John Paul Stevens -- Served with Justice Marshall on Supreme Court

Robert Strauss - U.S. ambassador and Chairman of DNC.

William Taylor -- Attorney who worked on the Brown decision

Harriet Thomas – wife of John Thomas

Susann Thomas - daughter of John Thomas

John Thomas – Refugee assistance pioneer who saved as many as six million lives.

Ted Van Dyk - Humphrey's special assistant

Bryan O. Walsh – Monsignor with 1963 Cuban refugee operation Pedro Pan.

Roger Wilkins - Assistant Attorney General of the United States

Jules Witcover – Journalist.

Juan Williams -- Journalist and Marshall biographer

Karen Hastie Williams -- Attorney and daughter of William Hastie

Paul Wolfowitz – Deputy Secretary of Defense